Never Miss a Word

Livescribe smartpens bring words and ideas into the digital world.

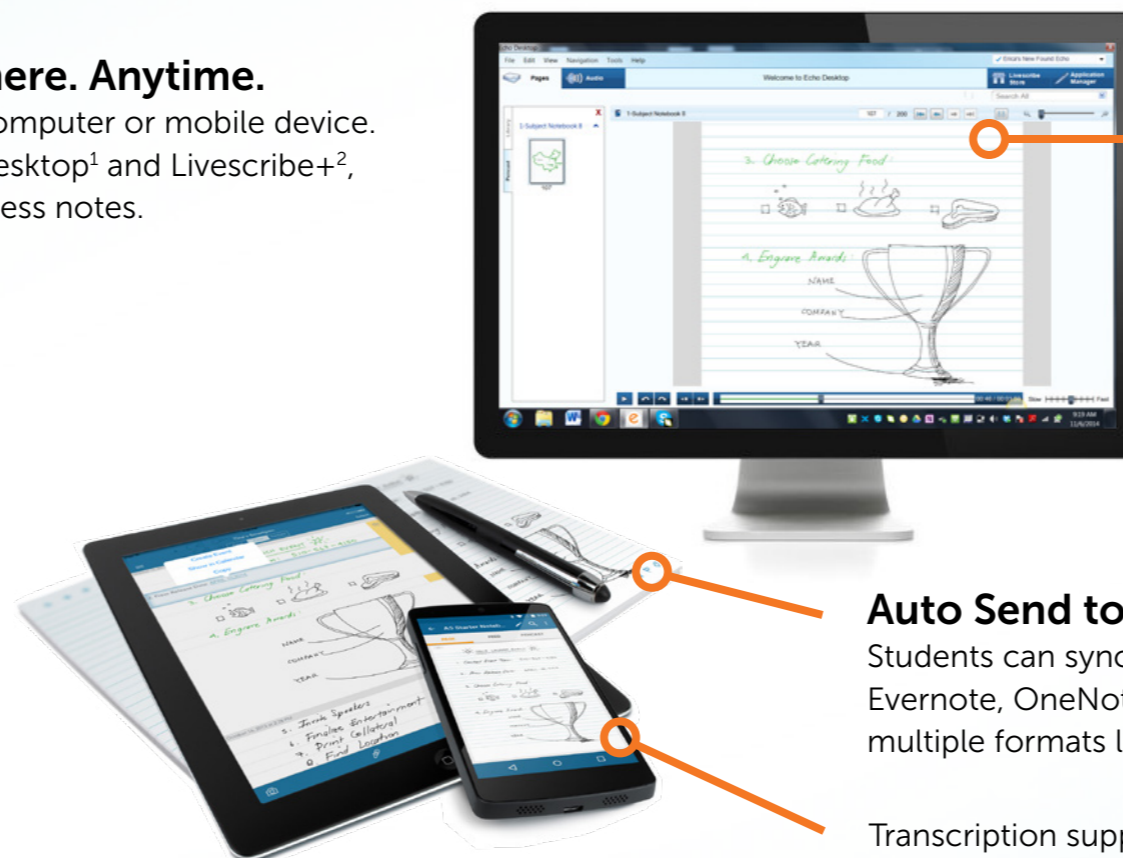

Livescribe smartpens digitally capture everything a student writes, hears, or says. What starts on paper, doesn't have to stay there.

Your notes with you. Anywhere. Anytime.

Smartpen reliably transfers notes to computer or mobile device. Free companion applications, Echo Desktop¹ and Livescribe+², makes it easy to manage, edit and access notes.

Record and Play

Students can record everything they write, hear or say. Replay your lectures, study sessions or meetings simply by tapping on your notes on paper/using paper playback controls.

Save, Search and Share

Livescribe applications turn handwritten notes into searchable text that can be easily edited, tagged and shared.

Auto Send to Cloud Services

Students can sync their notes automatically to your Evernote, OneNote and other cloud service applications in multiple formats like searchable PDF, PNG, and TXT.

Transcription supported in 22 languages²

Collaborative Classrooms: What You Need to Know

We've all heard that education is shifting to prepare students for the workforce. But what exactly is changing in the classroom? Here is a guide for moving to a collaborative classroom.

The Layout:

- Table pods instead of rows of desks
- Computers/tablets for every student with screen sharing instead of whiteboards or smartboards
- Flexible seating instead of assigned seats
- Tables with whiteboard surfaces

Why the Shift:

- Resembles real life social and employment situations
- Helps develop skills such as creativity, critical thinking, collaboration, and communication
- Teaches students how to listen and ask good questions
- Encourages student responsibility for their learning

Tips:

- Maintain your vision when implementing your collaborative classroom
- Make the classroom flexible so it can change with the job force
- Don't revolve the implication of a collaborative classroom around a product
- Be open to trying something new
