Accelerate your institution's research and focus on your ideas with EndNote 21

Rely upon the world's most comprehensive reference management tool, EndNote™, to help researchers save time, stay organized and collaborate easily, to focus on what matters: their ideas.

Academic researchers routinely collaborate on a global scale, and the need to work remotely has increased over the years.

EndNote 21 frees up your researchers' time by helping to eliminate endless hours gathering references and formatting citations. With tools that simplify the process of finding and editing PDFs, automating bibliography creation, helping with large-scale literature reviews and allowing sharing, your researchers can focus on what matters most: their ideas.

EndNote 21 introduces new features designed to help serious researchers conduct serious research.

- An exclusive new web interface to access when they're away from the desktop.

- A new organization feature with tags to enhance productivity.

- Provides peace of mind with data restoration functions that protect their work.

- Improves their writing workflow with integrated document creation tools.

Want to spend more time focusing on your ideas?

Take advantage of all the features that make EndNote an essential reference management tool for your institution. With EndNote, work with more collaborators, more references, and more reference types than any other reference management tool.

With EndNote 21 you can:

Save time — research better

- Search hundreds of online resources for references and find full text in one click.

- Use tools that find and manage PDFs for you throughout your search process. Then easily read, review, annotate and search PDFs in your library.

Stay organized — conduct large-scale projects

Use the new Tags customizable labels feature to help organize your references.

Collaborate easily — flexible solutions across geographic boundaries

- Easily collaborate by sharing some or all of your library with up to 1,000 people and set permissions for access and editing.

- Flexible solution for sharing and commenting that helps everyone stay on the same page.

Work from anywhere — anytime

Move seamlessly between desktop and iOS and access the new exclusive state-of-the-art version, EndNote Web.

Enjoy peace of mind — data is safe

Enjoy the peace of mind knowing your data is safe with data restoration functions that protect your work.

Write faster — integrated document creation tools

- Trust that your bibliography is correct with up-to-date journal and referencing styles with access to a library of more than 7,000 styles — more than any other reference tool — or you can customize your own style.

- Insert in-text citations while simultaneously creating a bibliography with Cite While You Write™ with Word.

- Keep your data accurate with automatic reference and link updating.

Access robust support — your success is our success

EndNote is compatible with both Windows and iOS, and both you and your researchers can access on-demand training from our product experts. An EndNote site-wide subscription includes set-up assistance for you and your IT team to ensure that you get up and running quickly, and access to our support team to help solve problems if any arise.
